

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

NHS Inpatient Survey 2017

E-bulletin 3: Poster reminder

Dear trust leads,

This is e-bulletin 3 for the 2017 NHS Adult Inpatient Survey. The previous e-bulletins that we sent are available on the NHS Surveys web site.

Poster reminder

Please ensure that the Inpatient Survey poster is displayed in all relevant areas of your trust to ensure that patients eligible for the survey have an opportunity to opt out of the survey – this is a requirement to comply with Data Protection Act responsibilities. The opt-out poster is already available on our website:

<http://www.nhssurveys.org/surveys/1086>

- Please add your trust's contact details to the bottom of the poster after the text "If you do not wish to take part, or have any questions about the survey, please contact: ..."
- You are not allowed to amend the poster in any other way, as this could invalidate the survey's section 251 approval.

Coming soon...

As you are aware, we will be running the yearly webinar on July 5th 2017 at from 11h to 12h. We will update you on what is new this year as well as how to avoid some common mistakes. The agenda and webinar details will be circulated closer to the date via e-bulletin. After the webinar, the slides will be made available online.

Why am I receiving this email?

You are receiving this message because you are, or were, a named contact for the Care Quality Commission's Adult inpatient Survey. If you are no longer involved in the Inpatient Survey, we would be very grateful if you could forward this message to the appropriate person at your trust and let us know about the change in details.

Questions?

Should you have any queries, please send us an email or call 01865 208127, and a member of the team will be happy to help.

With kind regards,

The Survey Coordination Centre

